

Over the course of our (5) class sessions and the dance party, we will be taking individual photographs of your son/daughter, as well as group photographs. These photographs will be available for your viewing on our website with a password-protected link to a specified photo gallery.

With your permission, we will also be using some of these photo's for posting on our website and Facebook page. It has been our experience that students and parents enjoy seeing these photographs, and also like the ability to share them on social media sites. Please sign and return the "Personal Photo Release" below. If you would prefer that we do not take photographs of your son/daughter, please check the box marked "No Photos".

Thank You,
Kurt Claxton
